Why a compliance calendar matters

Missed statutory deadlines lead to late fees, penalties and, in some cases, disqualification of directors. A simple calendar owned by one person in your finance team removes most of that risk.

Board & secretarial

- Hold the first board meeting within 30 days of incorporation, and at least four board meetings a year thereafter (with no more than 120 days between two meetings).
- Hold the Annual General Meeting (AGM) within six months of the end of the financial year.
- Maintain statutory registers and minutes books and keep them updated.

Annual ROC filings

- AOC-4 — financial statements, within 30 days of the AGM.
- MGT-7 / MGT-7A — annual return, within 60 days of the AGM.
- DIR-3 KYC — director KYC, annually.
- ADT-1 — auditor appointment, within 15 days of the AGM where applicable.

Direct tax

- Advance tax instalments in June, September, December and March.
- Quarterly TDS/TCS returns and timely deposit of tax deducted.
- Tax audit report and corporate income tax return within the prescribed due dates.

GST

- Monthly or quarterly GSTR-1 and GSTR-3B, depending on your filing scheme.
- Annual return (GSTR-9) and reconciliation statement (GSTR-9C) where applicable.
- Monthly reconciliation of purchase registers with GSTR-2B before claiming input tax credit.

How All Nine helps

We set up a compliance calendar tailored to your entity, take ownership of filings and send you a monthly status report — so nothing slips through the cracks.

This guide is general information, not legal or tax advice. Due dates are revised by the authorities from time to time; please confirm current timelines with us before acting.
